

Teacher Subject Specialism Training

Secondary Maths

This is our eighth course, led by Ashton on Mersey School and Sale Grammar School

THE COURSE AIMS

- To improve and develop the Secondary Maths subject knowledge of non-specialist teachers
- To provide support for teachers wishing to return to the profession through access to subject specialism training courses
- To provide ongoing support via a lifetime teacher licence for eMathsMaster, an innovative online training solution which empowers non-maths specialists to become confident and effective teachers of mathematics

WHO IS IT FOR?

- Current qualified teachers who are non-specialist Maths Teachers
- Qualified Maths Teachers who wish to return to the profession
- Those wanting to teach Maths at Secondary level

MATHEMATICAL CONTENT

- Teaching the new GCSE
- Preparation for Higher GCSE
- Planning & Resourcing
- Progressing & Assessing
- Mastery approaches
- Subject Knowledge Enhancement
- Teaching Maths at KS3

"Good level of challenge with lots of help too!"

"Very engaging, lots for us to practice! Some great training and so much wisdom to pass on"

Duration: 10 twilight classroom lessons from 4.00 - 6.00pm, supported by online sessions and full lifetime access to eMathsMaster online learning platform. Afternoon classroom observations on our School Experience days.

2019 dates:

29/1, 7/2, 26/2, 7/3, 12/3,
21/3, 26/3, 25/4, 30/4, 9/5

Held at Ashton on Mersey Teaching School

"Good ideas for use in the classroom"

Cost: Free of Charge

For more information on the programme and to register your interest please visit

<http://thedeantrustteachingschool.co.uk/maths-teacher-subject-specialism-training/>